1. Status

- 1.1. New Policy – for implementing a Website

2. Purpose

- 2.1. This Policy establishes the policy/rule for the adoption and amendment of BLM ROA policy relating to implementing a website, for the convenience of the members and to comply with the spirit of SB – 05-100.

3. Applicability

- 3.1. This policy applies to a one year trial, wherein the Ledford's have agreed to fund and maintain [subject to the approval of the ROA Board] a website to be called www.blazym.com for the purpose of informing members of meetings and providing a means of disseminating records of the ROA.

4. Policy

- 4.1. At the end of the year [or at the next annual meeting] the members will vote on whether or not to provide a budget item to continue to maintain the site. It is currently estimated the site will cost about $300 to maintain.
- 4.2. If the request for this Policy/Rule change is denied by the Board, the Ledford's will disband the website.
- 4.3. This Policies conforms to BLMROA Polciy 05-003 and uses the B Lazy M Policy Template.
- 4.4. This policy [when adopted] will be considered an ROA record.

5. Responsibility

- 5.1. During the first 12 months the Ledford's will have responsibility to provide and maintain the website, there will be not cost to the ROA. Thereafter, subject to a vote of the members, the site will only be maintained if funding is provided by the ROA..
